

VICTOR HUGO

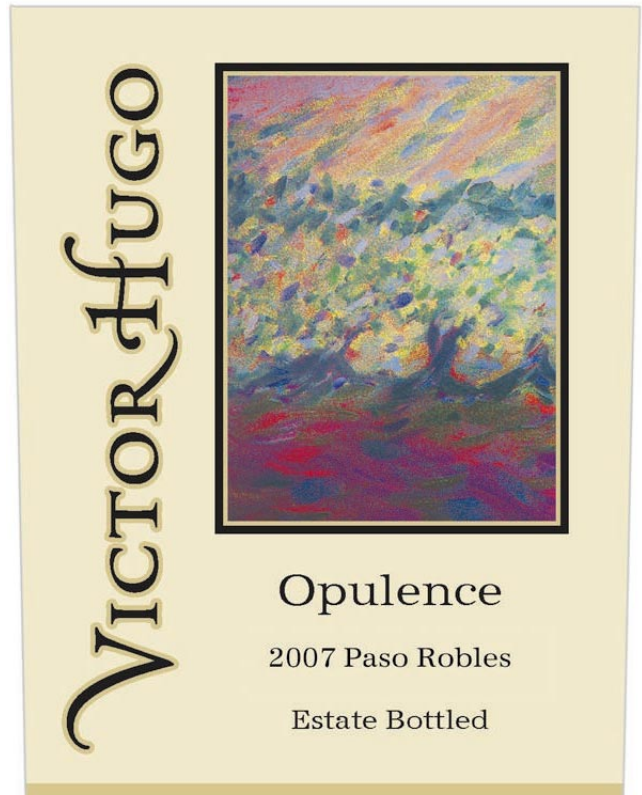

Tasting Notes

2007 Estate Opulence

Complex, elusive aromas emanating from the multi-varietal blending. Hints of ripe plum, cherries, and cinnamon intertwined with spicy oak. Flavors are deep and rich with layers of pleasantly assertive tannins overlaid with toasty oak. The finish is lush with piquant acidity which ensures excellent aging potential.

Cellaring: While enjoyable currently, this multidimensional Bordeaux blend will continue to improve with proper cellaring for another 7-10 years in the bottle with a plateau of best drinkability from 2010 - 2016.

Food selection: This bold, abundant wine will enhance any hearty beef and lamb dishes as well as pastas with rich sauces.
